

Antonio Viedma Rojas

PhD in Sociology, my teaching work has been developed mainly in the field of Methods and Techniques of Social Research, in the Department of Sociology I (Theory, Methodology and Social Change) of the Faculty of Political Science and Sociology in UNED. His field of research has focused on the study of prison and its social effects. Education and Higher Education in prisons, the situation of discrimination of women in prison and the processes of insertion and desistance from crime. Recently we have begun to study the situation of the minor children of prisoners and the effects that the imprisonment of their parents has on them.
